OVERVIEW

This design-oriented apartment in Berlin Mitte combines classical elements with modern influences, offering an inspiring stay in the cultural heart of the capital. The central location on Weinbergsweg guarantees direct access to galleries, bars and shopping opportunities while still providing tranquility and relaxation. The thoughtful interior creates an ambiance that unites comfort with contemporary design.

The 47 m² one-room apartment impresses with its light-flooded ambiance and high-quality materials that flow throughout every area of the open living space. The spacious main room unites a comfortable sleeping area with a large bed, diverse seating options for relaxed moments and an elegant dining area for social hours. Premium flooring extends throughout the entire living area, enhancing the harmonious spatial feeling, while generous window fronts channel natural light into all areas of this ground-floor apartment and offer pleasant views of the bustling street. The fully equipped kitchen offers a Nespresso coffee machine for perfect coffee enjoyment, a modern oven for culinary experiments, a practical cooktop and a refrigerator for fresh ingredients. Cutlery and dishes are naturally provided, while a kettle ensures quick hot beverages and thoughtful storage solutions guarantee organization within the kitchen area. The spacious bathroom features a relaxing bathtub for restorative moments after an eventful day and provides additional storage surfaces for personal items as well as practical storage options. WiFi and television provide modern comfort, while bed linen, covers and towels are already prepared. An elevator in the building facilitates access to this ground-floor apartment with its generous window fronts and creates barrier-free accessibility for all residents.

The location at Rosenthaler Platz is unbeatable: U8 underground station, M1 and M8 tram stops, and bus stops for lines 142, N8 and N40 are just a one-minute walk away. The vibrant surroundings offer cultural diversity and urban flair, while the excellent transport connections make all facets of Berlin accessible. Ideal for business travelers and expats seeking furnished temporary living in a central location.
