OVERVIEW

This high-quality studio apartment is located in the urban heart of Berlin Mitte-Wedding, offering the perfect base for exploring the capital. The central location provides quick access to Friedrichstraße, Mauerpark, and Hauptbahnhof. The modern apartment building guarantees high quality and contemporary comfort for discerning residents.

The 27 m² studio on the first floor impresses with its thoughtful layout and modern amenities within a compact space. The living area makes optimal use of the available floor space, creating a functional atmosphere for both work and relaxation, with natural light streaming through the windows to brighten the interior while quality flooring materials enhance the overall aesthetic appeal. The fully equipped kitchen features a cooktop, refrigerator with freezer compartment, coffee machine, and kettle, with the oven deliberately omitted to optimize space utilization. Complete dinnerware and cutlery are provided, while thoughtful storage solutions in the kitchen maintain organization and offer additional space for personal items. The compact bathroom comes with a modern shower and hairdryer, offering practical shelf space for toiletries and ample room for daily grooming routines. The private terrace extends the living space outdoors, providing a pleasant retreat area with views of greenery, perfect for relaxing moments or working in the fresh air. A television provides entertainment after a busy day, while complimentary WiFi ensures reliable internet connectivity. Weekly cleaning service with linen and towel changes, plus washing machines and dryers in the building ensure comfortable temporary living. An elevator provides barrier-free access, while apartments are available from the first to fourth floors, and an iron with ironing board is conveniently available for professional needs.

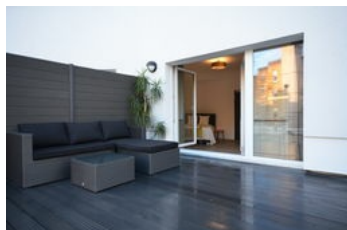

The vibrant Wedding district combines urban flair with authentic Berlin character and is developing into one of the capital's most sought-after neighborhoods. Thanks to excellent public transport connections, you can easily and quickly reach all major city areas. The apartment is ideal for business travelers, expats, and professionals seeking central, fully furnished accommodation in Berlin.
