OVERVIEW

On the fifth floor of a 1905 period building, this exceptional 138 m² studio loft unfolds with the charm of historic architecture. Original beams and expansive skylights flood the rooms with natural light while offering sweeping views across Berlin Mitte. Lindower Straße connects you to the vibrant heart of the capital.

The spacious living room with lounge area extends across the main living space and invites relaxation through south-facing skylights while views sweep over the city's characteristic rooftops. The open kitchen with premium built-in appliances, Nespresso machine, dishwasher, oven, and freezer flows seamlessly into the adjacent dining area, creating a sociable centerpiece for up to six people. The continuous gray concrete flooring harmonizes perfectly with the whitewashed wooden beams and gray-toned masonry, while ample storage space in integrated wardrobes maintains order throughout. The comfortable main bedroom with generous proportions features an open en-suite bathroom with walk-in shower and copper accents, plus an open dressing area with custom-built wardrobes for optimal storage capacity. A second bedroom provides additional comfort with independent hallway access, while another bathroom with shower and guest WC completes the layout. Comprehensive technical amenities include washing machine, Sonos sound system, projector with screen, television, and complimentary WiFi with internet flatrate. The monochrome color palette of grays, whites, and warm wood tones is complemented by seating in teddy and bouclé fabrics, plus eclectic details like handcrafted ceramic tableware and white plastic furniture in 70s style. Carefully curated artworks add individuality and depth to each room, while the alarm system and elevator provide additional comfort and security.

Berlin Mitte offers cultural diversity with museums, galleries, and historic landmarks within walking distance. Restaurants, cafés, and shopping opportunities are easily accessible on foot, inviting urban exploration. The central location ensures optimal connections to all districts, making this studio an ideal refuge for business travelers and expats seeking furnished temporary living in a historic setting.
